October 13th, 2024

PASTOR’S REFLECTION

The man's name in the Gospel is not mentioned. He can be any of us who meets Jesus on the road of life and who is struck by the beauty of his teaching and the leadership Jesus exudes. We all had had our moments of religious fervor when we wanted to be a priest or a religious or when we wanted to be a caring companion of the elderly, the sick, the lonely and the helpless. We felt good at such moments for we felt the intensity of the Lord's presence and appeal.

The man felt he was a good man. He is basically a good guy, "I have kept all these commandments ever since..." His wealth may actually have protected him from sin. Like him, we too at times try to tell God we are good. We present evidence to prove our goodness. We tell Him that we do not forget to pray every day, that we go to Mass every Sunday, that we are honest in our work, that we obey the commandments, that our family life is solid. But the Lord could ask us, however, is this enough? Maybe we keep our hands clean, but are they helping hands? Maybe we are good providers to our family, but do we nourish a Christian spirit in our home? Maybe we honor our parents, but do we practice the virtues they taught us?.

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

CHRIST THE KING CHURCH - HISPANIC COMMUNITY

- By Father Ornelo Cherez

Domingo 13 de Octubre del 2024. (semana XXVIII del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, la grandeza de una opción, el tema central de las lecturas de este domingo es la opción. La grandeza y al mismo tiempo toda la responsabilidad de ser humanos depende de esa palabra: opción; optar.

Por otra parte, es obvio que no todas las opciones tiene idéntico peso. Optar por salir al parque o ir a ver el partido de fútbol es algo relativamente trivial. Optar por una carrera profesional o por otra es algo más serio. Y así podemos pensar que hay una jerarquía de opciones en la vida, y que eventualmente uno toma alguna opción que podemos llamar "fundamental".

Opciones fundamentales; La opción fundamental de algún modo es la escogencia radical que hacemos para darle una forma específica a nuestra vida. Así por ejemplo, en la primera lectura de hoy encontramos a alguien, que según el relato es Salomón, que ha hecho una opción radical por algo maravilloso que es la sabiduría. No un asunto de amontonar conocimientos o teorías, sino un modo de vida; una opción fundamental, que en este caso ha traído una inmensa felicidad a Salomón.

Ahora bien, Cristo se presenta en el evangelio como la gran opción, como la opción fundamental, y ciertamente no acepta ser menos que eso. Hay una especie de intransigencia de Cristo que nos confronta con lo más radical de nuestro ser y nos empuja a decidirnos por él o sin él.

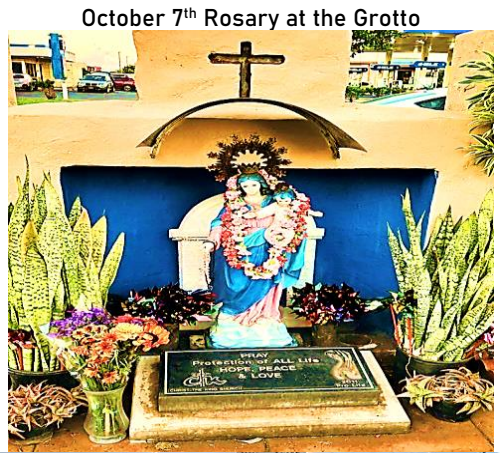

Esta "intransigencia" del Señor no es capricho. En él, en Cristo, Dios se está dando a sí mismo. Como dirían siglos después Santa Catalina de Siena o San Juan de la Cruz: "más no nos podía dar". Por eso el rechazo a Cristo es una opción que configura todo en la vida de una persona; y por eso también la acogida de la persona y el mensaje de Jesús toca todo en la vida del creyente.

Por lo tanto cada uno debemos tomar la mejor opción, y bueno sería dejandonos iluminar por la sabiduría de Dios para que así, podamos estar llenos de bendiciones y gracias.

Feliz y bendecida semana.
