PASTOR'S REFLECTION

The Scribe had an honest and a friendly question to Jesus. He just wanted to know which was the all-important commandment. And Jesus provided a simple and clear answer that can serve as a reliable rule of life. The Gospel story indicates there is no conflict between the Old Testament and the New Testament, between the law of Moses and the law of Jesus. The Scribe and Jesus are in full agreement on what really matters for people who are believers. Jesus does not belittle the old law; He only shows what is fundamental in understanding and practicing that law. The Scribe fully agrees with that presentation as he responded, "well spoken, Master." Jesus tells him there is nothing blocking his entry into the kingdom, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." They parted as friends.

Scribes were very devoted and sincere in their religious beliefs and practices. Jesus tells them nothing new for his new commandment, the first, "...You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength." and the second, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," are found in the Torah. He only calls their and our attention to the fact that no law or tradition can have the final say. We always have to follow the basic direction of love for God and neighbor.

PRAYER FOR THE SOULS OF THE DEPARTED

Almighty Eternal God, in Your fatherly goodness, be kind to the soul of Your servant, (Name). Cleanse him/her whom You have called from this world of all his/her faults, take him/her into the Realm of Light and Peace and into the Community of Your Saints, and give him/her his/her share of Eternal Delight in Your Kingdom. God, You Creator and Saviour of all the faithful, forgive all the sins of all Your servants' souls. Let them receive forgiveness through our pious prayer, for which they have always been yearning. CHRIST THE KING CHURCH – HISPANIC COMMUNITY

- By Father Ornelo Cherrez

Domingo 3 de Noviembre del 2024. (Semana XXXI del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, las lecturas de este domingo nos muestran que en realidad el tema entero de la Biblia es el amor. El mensaje que Dios ha querido darnos, desde la primera hasta la última página, es AMOR, aprender a amar. Uno cree que el amor es algo espontáneo y por consiguiente algo que no necesita ser enseñado y que no puede ser aprendido. Al fin y al cabo, nadie nos enseñó que nos tenían que gustar los helados, ni nadie nos explicó que era delicioso tomar agua fresca cuando se tiene mucha sed. ¿por qué, en cambio, el amor debe ser enseñado? ¿Por qué sucede que lo que nace espontáneamente de nosotros al amar no es siempre genuino amor?

Hay varias respuestas. Una, es que el amor necesita encontrar su objeto o centro propio. Uno puede centrar toda su capacidad de amor en algo que finalmente va a resultar engañoso o perjudicial. Alguien perdidamente enamorado del alcohol va camino de autodestruirse, por ejemplo. Antes de que algo así suceda es preciso que alguien nos abra los ojos y que nos haga ver que hemos sido creados para otros amores, para mejores amores. Y el mejor de los amores es Dios mismo. ¿Cómo no recordar aquí las palabras de san Agustín? "Nos creaste, Señor, para ti, y nuestro corazón está inquieto, hasta que descansa en ti," enseña este santo Doctor de la Iglesia, y son verdaderas sus palabras. Encontrar a Dios es encontrar el centro propio y proporcionado a los infinitos anhelos de nuestro corazón.

El amor necesita ser aprendido también necesita ser ordenado, es decir, también ha de ser objeto de un mandamiento expreso de parte de Dios. No es una mandato que "caiga" sobre nosotros como una imposición, es la ruta que nos lleva a desplegar lo más profundo y mejor de nosotros mismos. Quien no ama hasta el fondo, quien no ama con todo el ser, no sólo pierde contacto con el amor sino que pierde contacto con lo profundo de su propia alma. Lo profunda del alma sólo puede hablar el lenguaje de un amor sin condiciones y si uno no llega a ese lenguaje termina viviendo como en traición a sí mismo. Así pues, Dios nos ordena que lo amemos no por bien suyo sino por bien nuestro. No es nuestro amor el que puede hacerle falta a Él sino su mandato de amar el que puede desarrollar lo más íntimo y mejor de nosotros mismos. Al ordenarnos que amemos, Dios está en realidad prolongando la misma voz con que nos ordenó que existiéramos.

Que tengan una Feliz y Bendecida semana.
