PASTOR'S REFLECTION

The apostles went back at their original place of calling, as fishermen. It gives the impression that they felt more the pain than the joy of being Christian. The reason why they went back to their fishing boats is not mentioned. Was it a disappointment? Was it because they felt more competent in catching fish than people? It seems they were not yet convinced that they had to go out and preach the good news to the whole world. They were still too much preoccupied with the bad news of Jesus' death. It happens to us too that we want to give up when we have a bad day at work, when a project into which we put so much of ourselves is collapsing, or when we are accused of malicious intentions. We want to quit our job because we do not feel the support of our co-workers, or the boss does not appreciate our efforts and notices only shortcomings. The gospel reminds us in such moments to look for the Lord, for He is with us to bring about the unexpected.

Father Efre A. Tomas, MS

Knights of Columbus to lead Rosary before each Weekend Mass to Honor Mother Mary

Why May?

Historians aren't exactly sure why May was chosen to honor Mary, but many believe that May being the month when spring is in full bloom has a lot to do with it. May is the height of spring--gardens everywhere are alive with blooming flowers and trees are filling their branches with leaves. This new beginning and new birth in nature reminds us of the life Mary gave to Jesus. Without Mary giving birth to Jesus, all the events that followed: Jesus' life, death, and resurrection wouldn't have happened. So, it's believed that May (when nature is showing signs of life) is the ideal month to honor the woman who gave life to our Savior.

CHRIST THE KING CHURCH HISPANIC MINISTRY

By Father Ornelo Cherez

Domingo 4 de Mayo del 2025. (Tercera semana de Pascua).

Hermanas y hermanos, este tiempo de Pascua es como una prolongada contemplación de la gloria de Cristo y de su victoria. El Señor vive, se ha levantado de entre los muertos, y como él mismo dijo, una vez levantado, ha atraído a todos y a todo hacia sí. Cristo se levanta y con él, el pueblo que confía en su Nombre; Cristo se levanta y su victoria da unidad a la creación ya renovada, para presentarla como ofrenda solemne en el altar del cielo.

Pascua es el tiempo más propicio para reunir nuestras voces con los coros de los ángeles en el cielo. A todo lo largo de la Pascua descubrimos de manera nueva que no hay sino una Iglesia, que es el Cuerpo de Cristo, o mejor: el Cristo total, como gustaba de decir san Agustín de Hipona. Tales la grandiosa visión de la que escuchábamos en el texto de la segunda lectura: Y todas las criaturas del cielo y de la tierra, de debajo de la tierra y del mar, oí que también decían: Al que está sentado en el trono y al Cordero, alabanza, honor, gloria y poder por los siglos de los siglos.

Los apóstoles ciertamente habían aprendido muy bien estas lecciones, pues, después de ser injusta y cruelmente azotados como oímos en la primera lectura de hoy. Fortalecidos por el don del Espíritu Santo, fueron capaces no sólo de dar testimonio sino de sufrir, e incluso gozarse en el sufrimiento, como un modo máximo de dar testimonio de Aquel que les concedía tal fortaleza y tal alegría.

Todo, pues, depende de la calidad de amor que nos mueve, como lo muestra el evangelio de hoy. Tres veces negó Pedro a Jesús, cuando llegaba la hora suprema de la dolorosa Pasión; tres veces preguntó Jesús a Pedro si le amaba, cuando la tormenta había ya pasado. Aquel testimonio de amor tenía una razón de ser muy clara: sanar las heridas que habían causado el miedo, la vanidad y el orgullo.

Y de aquí podemos tomar una segunda lección muy importante sobre el sentido del tiempo pascual: buscar amor que sea digno de ese nombre. De hecho, el tiempo pascual es como un inmenso arco tendido entre la Resurrección del Señor y Pentecostés. Tanto la resurrección como la efusión maravillosa del Espíritu Santo son las más grandes expresiones del amor que vence sobre el pecado y la muerte.

Semana.

Mother's Day Intentions

The role of a mother is one of great privilege; to be chosen to share in a creative miracle and to bring new Saints to heaven. Mothers give of themselves endlessly in the nurturing and education of their children, that they may be a joy in this world and a glory in the next.

On Mother's Day, May 10th, all Masses will include the Mass Intention for "All mothers, living and deceased". Envelopes honoring the names of our mothers will be lovingly placed in a basket near the Altars at the Church for the weekend.

To have your mother remembered, living or deceased, please submit their names in the Mother's Day envelope found in your collection envelopes or you may provide your own or pick one up at the entrances to the church.

The deadline is May 7th at 3:30pm.
