

Christ the King Church

MISSION STATEMENT

"Christ the King Parish is to "Go and Make Disciples" by welcoming all into our community: growing as Holy Disciples in formation through prayer, fellowship, and witnessing to God's people.

5th Sunday of Easter May 18th, 2025

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Jesus gives us a new commandment to "love one another." St John reminds us that our greatest task as Christians is to love one another. It was something John himself did not always find easy to practice. Jesus' commandment is no longer acting in a loving way based on feelings and moods. It is now an agape love, an act of the will, a conscious choice made out of faith-filled obedience. It is a commandment we are all very willing to accept in principle. It is the root of all goodness.

Anyone who calls himself a Christian has to keep reading God's message of love in the Bible and one has to grow in love, compassion, respect and humility. We cannot become a sect who erects walls and barriers out of fear to keep its members in and to create false security. If a Christian community is truly caring, it becomes obvious that the people are important, that the community is at the service of the people who retain their individuality and their personal freedom to think and make decisions. A real community does not destroy individuals but empowers them.

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

CHRIST THE KING CHURCH- HISPANIC COMMUNITY

By Father Ornelo Cherez

Domingo 18 de mayo del 2025. (Quinta Semana de Pascua).

Hermanas y hermanos, es verdad que Jesús vive. Es verdad que su vida nos da vida y fuerza y gozo. Pero también es verdad que "hay que pasar mucho para entrar en el reino de Dios." Vivir la Pascua, entonces, no es vivir de ilusiones. No es imaginar un mundo rosado o un jardín de delicias, sino comprender que aunque esta tierra sigue siendo tierra de sembradío, la cosecha está asegurada y el amor, un amor cierto y firme como la victoria de Cristo, habrá de apresurarla.

Y sin embargo, así como hay que ser "realistas," es preciso vivir en la saludable y bella tensión de la esperanza. Las realidades y dificultades de cada día nos pueden ir desgastando, como también sucede a las parejas y familias que sienten que su amor se desgasta y paraliza con la rutina. Por eso es necesario saber levantar la mirada de cuando en cuando para recordar hacia dónde va el camino y para sonreír con las caricias que nuestro Padre Dios sabe darnos incluso mientras vamos caminando.

El libro del Apocalipsis, es un canto colmado de certeza. Es una poesía que se eleva de en medio de la rutina que asfixia o la persecución que paraliza. A ver, ¿quién no se pone en movimiento para ir hacia esa mansión de la que no se nos habla en la segunda lectura: Ésta es la morada de Dios con los hombres: acampará entre ellos. Ellos serán su pueblo, y Dios estará con ellos y será su Dios. Enjugará las lágrimas de sus ojos. Ya no habrá muerte, ni luto, ni llanto, ni dolor. Porque el primer mundo ha pasado?. Caminar en la esperanza no es caminar en la irrealidad. Caminar en la amargura no es caminar en la realidad. Lo real tiene su arista de dolor pero tiene también su música propia, la que le dio Cristo muriendo en realidad para, en realidad, resucitar.

A medida que se acerca la fiesta de la Ascensión y van avanzando con prisa estos días del tiempo pascual es inevitable preguntarnos por la presencia de nuestro Amado, nuestro Señor Jesús. El primer día de la Pascua, la Magdalena corrió a buscarlo, y en esa prisa de amor estábamos todos representados porque a todos nos hace falta Él, pues sólo Él es Maestro del Amor que no muere.

Feliz y bendecida quinta semana de Pascua.

OHANA IN CHRIST 2ND COLLECTION will be taken up at all masses on May 31st/June 1st weekend. As we wind up towards our final countdown deadline June 30th, we are $8,500 away in reaching our goal. Therefore, we are making a big push to meet our diocesan goal set forth for our Parish! Your kindness and generosity are appreciated.

Through your prayerful, sacrificial gift to 'Ohana in Christ, you are:

- Welcoming, supporting and forming our seminarians as they discern their call to the holy priesthood
- Providing food and shelter assistance to families and individuals across the Islands
- Caring for our retired priests after giving their lives in service to the Church
- Enhancing the faith and spiritual growth of the people in our parishes
- Fostering the faith of our youth and young adults through fellowship, community, and Sacramental life

Thank you for your support, for caring for those around you, and for being a member of this Catholic 'ohana of faith.
