

Christ the King Church

MISSION STATEMENT

"Christ the King Parish is to "Go and Make Disciples" by welcoming all into our community: growing as Holy Disciples in formation through prayer, fellowship, and witnessing to God's people.

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

July 27, 2025

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

The disciples must have seen our Lord praying several times and the experience must have driven them to request Jesus, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." The example of Jesus invited the disciples to imitate Him. It made the disciples aware how much they still must learn to be one with Him. We too have so much to learn to pray effectively, because there are moments when we pray where we feel empty at times, so frustrated about ourselves while praying.

The Lord taught his disciples what is popularly known as, "The Lord's Prayer." It is a good summary of the Christian life as it puts together important elements in praying. The first point that Jesus seems to stress is that we should know to whom we are praying. Jesus directed us to His Father who is full of care and love for us. He instructed his disciples the need to praise and worship God, to pray for our daily needs, to forgive one another, and to pray for protection. It is a good beginning especially for disciples following our Lord. We go to Him in the fullest trust that God is a loving Father. Jesus assures us that our prayer can be free from any insecurity for we deal with somebody who is extremely well-disposed to us. Father Efred A. Tomas, MS

Eucharistic Women of The Cross (EWOTC)

We are a group that seeks a deeper and closer union with God, Jesus,
and the Holy Spirit.

Mission:

We strive towards Holiness through
the Eucharist, Adoration, Reconciliation, Prayers, and Fasting.
We journey to sainthood by serving God and his people and inviting others to the same calling.

Vision:

We are a spiritual group that journeys to Heaven. We embody Holiness to become more like the image of God. We join our hearts to Mother Mary as her spiritual companions as she stood beneath the Cross of her Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ

"MEMORARE"

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother; to thee do I come;
before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not my petitions,
but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Domingo 27 de Julio del 2025 (Semana XVII del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, el tema común es la oración y cuánto puede lograrse a través de ella. Aunque, si miramos más detenidamente, la enseñanza de hoy alude a esa forma de oración que todos conocemos y seguramente hemos practicado muchísimas veces: la oración de petición. Además, tanto en el texto del Génesis como en la lectura de San Lucas aparece un hecho: lo que se pide resulta difícil o incómodo. Esto es interesante porque de seguro nosotros mismos hemos sentido más de una vez que lo que pedimos escapa la lógica fría de los hechos y por ello es incómodo o difícil pedirlo. Pero bueno, ¡precisamente por eso es una oración de súplica, porque no parece que las cosas vayan a darse como por sí solas!

En el Génesis vemos a Abraham intercediendo a favor de los que, siendo inocentes, se hallan en medio de un pueblo corrupto y vil. Por eso ruega, apelando a la justicia de Dios, de un modo humilde pero persistente. De su ejemplo aprendemos esas dos cualidades que son muy propias de la oración cristiana: humildad y perseverancia. También aprendemos que la oración es diálogo, implica un encuentro real con Aquel que nos ama.

Si en la primera lectura Abraham ruega fundándose en la justicia, y desde ahí argumenta que Dios nunca destruirá al inocente con el culpable, en el evangelio encontramos, otra razón para nuestro ruego: le hablamos a Dios porque somos sus hijos. En la oración se devela y a la vez se hace efectivo el misterio de nuestra condición de hijos, que Cristo predicó y que también hizo posible con su sacrificio redentor, que hizo posible el don del Espíritu Santo para nosotros. El fundamento último de nuestra oración no es entonces que queremos un mundo mejor, porque eso lo puede querer cualquier ser dotado de razón; no es tampoco que merecemos ser exentos de tales o cuales dolores o problemas. Ni es tampoco porque seamos buenos o libres de culpa. Oramos porque somos hijos. Oramos porque el Espíritu del Hijo ora en nosotros.

Oramos con perseverancia, sencillez, confianza y sobre todo con inmenso amor, convencidos como estamos de que Dios sabe qué es lo mejor para nosotros y puede y quiere otorgárnoslo.

Que todos tengan una feliz y bendecida semana.
