HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Today we celebrate the Holy Family of Nazareth into which Jesus was born. When He accepted to become one of us, He also agreed to grow up in a human setting. The Holy Family can teach us family life in a very simple and meaningful way. In their life together, they cooperated with each other with perfect understanding and harmony, supported each other and shared joys and sorrows together. We owe much of what we are today to the kind of love our parents showed each other. Many beautiful things we want to share with our children will also be fruits of marital love. They lived in a communion of love. That kind of relationship makes a house into a home and a household into a family.

One of the commandments is that we honor our mother and father, those who have given us life. They are representatives of God, entrusted with the right and duty to exercise care and concern over our lives. The family should be a great school whereby we learn to love and live according to the ways of God. Parents should help their children, by word and example, to cultivate the spirit and attitude suitable for home and family. They should believe in their children, nurture them, give them guidance, confidence and hope. In the same way children should relate to their parents with love, respect, trust, understanding, obedience, humility and kindness. Good children.

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

YOUTH MINISTRY

Sunday, December 21st, it was a day of fun games along with teachings about Christmas. What is the Reason for this Season: This is a wonderful time of year and a blessing! The gift of the child, Jesus Christ, is for us all and for our salvation. Learning about the big responsibility Mary took on when she said yes to God and to learn about obedience to God as we ponder on Joseph, YES!

Domingo 28 de Diciembre del 2025.

(Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia).

Hermanos y hermanas, la familia es sagrada porque nace de Dios. Es anterior al Estado y a sus leyes, y por supuesto, va primero que los acuerdos entre los mismo Estados o las conveniencias de las empresas o asociaciones humanas. De Dios viene toda paternidad, nos enseña San Pablo. Dar origen a la vida humana es asemejarse demasiado a Dios, y por ello es preciso que la paz, la bondad y la sabiduría de Dios abunden allí donde ya se hizo presente su magnífico poder.

Así como en la honra al padre y a la madre se entiende el deber previo de descubrir qué hay en ellos que sea digno de honra. Esto no disminuye nuestro deber sino que lo aquilata, porque puesto como un enunciado general nos está indicando que siempre hay algo honorable, algo que pide reverencia y gratitud en aquellos que nos han dado algo que no podemos retornarles de ningún modo. Así que, aunque en todo lo demás fallaren, es claro que en el misterio de ser instrumentos de la vida hay siempre un misterio de donación en que Dios se ha hecho presente, y por tanto requiere nuestra gratitud y honra.

Lo primero es que cada miembro de la familia se reconozca como "elegido" por Dios, sumergido en la gracia, bañado por el perdón, fortalecido en la paz, iluminado por la Palabra, lleno de motivos de gratitud y gozo. Sin esta base, la familia será pacto de intereses no santuario del amor divino. Otro modo de decir esto es: en la medida en que reconocemos que la gracia nos hermana en Dios y nos hace familia de Dios, llegamos a ser familia humana. No pensemos entonces que la sola intensidad de los sentimientos, así se trate de sentimientos muy poderosos de pareja o de paternidad, basta: todo lo humano necesita ser sanado, y todo lo que ha de ser sanado ha de serlo en Cristo Jesús.

Sobre esta base se comprende que en la familia hay un misterio de complementariedad que es propio de la vida cristiana entera. Los deberes y derechos, tienen un doble referente. En primer lugar, hacia adentro, lo que cada uno tiene de propio y peculiar, esto es: la mujer es mujer, y el hombre es hombre; el papá es papá, y el hijo es hijo.

Feliz y bendecido día de las Familias

A New Years' Prayer

Heavenly Father,

As the sun rises on this new year, I thank You for the gift of life, the lessons of the past, and the promise of what's ahead.

Fill my heart with courage to face challenges, wisdom to make good choices, and compassion to love others well.

May my days be guided by Your light, my steps be steady in Your truth, and my spirit be anchored in Your peace. Bless my family, friends, and all whose paths cross mine, that together we may grow in kindness, faith, and joy.

This year, let my life reflect Your goodness in every word and deed.

Amen.
