MISSION STATEMENT

“Christ the King Parish is to “Go and Make Disciples” by welcoming all into our community: growing as Holy Disciples in formation through prayer, fellowship, and witnessing to God’s people.

*6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 15th, 2026*

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

The early Christians were accused of not obeying the law. They did not observe fasting and ritual ablutions as practiced by Jewish tradition. They no longer required circumcision or compliance with the strict prohibitions on Sabbath activities. To the Jews, it meant the undermining of the Mosaic law and the prophets. The Mosaic law was made when Israel came out of slavery. It was intended to make Israel strong by living in a spirit of righteousness.

Jesus says, "Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law and the Prophets."

He did not abolish the law, rather He concretized the abstractness of the law concerning the most pertinent aspect of human relationship and ethics. Just like a professional psychologist, Jesus goes about explaining how to handle anger, marital relationship, matters concerning divorce and swearing. Post-modern society, which emphasizes individual satisfaction and subjective fulfillment, has unfortunately lost touch with some of the fundamental measures oriented towards dignity, culture and relationships. The teachings of Jesus regarding these benchmarks of human relationship had been revolutionary then, as they are today. Most of us are like the Pharisees and the Scribes who follow the letter of the Law but not the spirit of the Law. Let us accept the teaching of Jesus as what is possible, feasible and correct and live it in our day-to-day life.

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

In what aspect of my life do I need to accept God's wisdom and the Spirit's guidance and change my behavior?

If a Loved One at home, wishes to do confession and receive communion, please call the office to set up an appointment for one of our Priest.

RESPECT LIFE

"We often assume parenthood happens easily after 'I do,' but for many married couples, it does not. For some, the joy of conception never happens. Others suffer repeated miscarriages. Still others experience secondary infertility... If you have trouble bringing a child into your family, know that you are not alone. God is with you, and his Church desires to walk with you... God has a beautiful plan for your life as a married couple." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Seven Considerations While Navigating Infertility" respectlife.org/navigating-infertility

New mass intention requests must be submitted 10 days prior to your requested date.

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

Domingo 15 de Febrero del 2026

(Semana VI del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, si preguntamos a casi cualquier persona si le gusta recibir órdenes, esperamos oír la consabida respuesta: "Soy libre. No me gusta que manden." O algo parecido. Al mismo tiempo, uno ve que la gente sí que sigue instrucciones, a veces muy detalladas. El comercio les dice cómo vestirse, adónde divertirse, qué música escuchar, de quién enamorarse.

Además, recibimos de los médicos, los policías y los profesores multitud de mandatos, que, en general, no llevan ese nombre, pero que lo son. El médico por ejemplo me prohíbe ciertos alimentos, o me manda que vuelva a su consultorio en tres semanas. Y yo obedezco. Queda demostrado entonces que sí recibimos órdenes de muchas personas e instituciones, de donde es claro que nuestra pretendida libertad y nuestro deseo de no hacer caso a Dios es un caso aislado: un modo de respuesta que usamos cuando se trata de religión o de la Iglesia; porque para lo demás sí que somos obedientes.

Ahora bien, nuestra obediencia en los ejemplos dados tiene una razón de ser: nuestro placer, provecho o protección. Se entiende entonces que desobedecemos a Dios porque no encontramos ninguno de esos tres. Y no los encontramos porque conocemos poco de sus planes y de su voluntad. Es que cuando va conociendo mejor al Señor va aprendiendo a obedecer mejor y sobre todo con más amor y fidelidad.

El Sermón del Monte nos presenta a Cristo en claro paralelo con la figura inigualable de Moisés; pero Cristo no está suprimiendo ni suplantando ni completando a Moisés. La palabra de Cristo no se apoya en lo que le oyó a Dios sino que se sustenta en sí misma: "Pero yo os digo..." Este modo de hablar sólo tiene sentido sobre la base de una afirmación, implícita pero real, de la divinidad de Cristo. Cristo no es sólo un mensajero acreditado, como lo fue, y con honores, Moisés. Cristo es el mensaje mismo; y Cristo es la fuente misma de todo mandato y mandamiento. Vivir en Cristo y de Cristo es alcanzar lo que la Ley de Moisés no podía sino desear.

Feliz y bendecida semana.

The Marianists

As many of you may have heard, St. Anthony School will close its high school at the end of this school year. Beginning next year, we will operate as a Preschool-8th grade school. We ask for your continued prayers and support as we enter this new chapter in our long and faithful history of 178 years. Strengthening enrollment is essential to keeping our doors open, and with your partnership, we look forward to building toward our bicentennial celebration.

Families with children in grades K-8 who are interested in enrolling but are concerned about affordability are encouraged to explore scholarship opportunities. The ACE Scholarship is for students in grades K-8 and provides one-third of tuition assistance every year until they leave the school. Additional need-based scholarships are available through the Augustine Education Foundation. Deadlines are approaching, so we encourage you to apply as soon as possible. For more information, please visit our website or call the school office at (808) 244-4190.

If you are an alumnus or alumna, please contact the school office so we can update our records and keep you informed of important developments.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support.
