Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

PASTOR’S REFLECTION

The feast of the resurrection of our Lord Jesus is the greatest feast of the year for Christians, greater than any other religious feast, including Christmas. Why? Many people will say that we are saved because Jesus died for us. This is not entirely wrong, but it is very incomplete. Because if Jesus’ death was the end, how could he save us? The truth is that Jesus saves us through his life, his suffering and death, and his resurrection from the dead, the whole of it. Without his resurrection, his life, suffering and death are meaningless for our salvation.

Today’s feast of Jesus’ rising from the dead is the crown of God’s salvation work. It affects everyone of us in the deepest core of our existence, because it opens for us the way to eternal life in God. Without Jesus’ life and resurrection there is no hope whatsoever. In the Apostles Creed we profess our faith that Jesus will come again at the end of time to be judge over everyone, “to judge the living and the dead.” Jesus is the first-born from the dead, and through him we will rise to eternal life. There is, however, one essential condition, that is to believe in him. But believing in Jesus is not just professing that he is the Son of God and Savior of the world. It means rather, to profess him with our hearts and with our lives, by following his commandments, above all his new commandment, to love one another as I have loved you. “In this you will show that you are my disciples, if you love one another”. This is how we show our true faith in him.

Father Efen A. Tomas, MS

Readings: April 11-12, 2026

1st Readings: Acts 2: 42-47

Psalms: 118

2nd Readings: 1Peter 1: 3-9

Gospel: John 20: 19-31

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

To what must I die in order to rise with Christ in new life? What old yeast must be thrown out of my life so that I may become a fresh batch of dough, living in the newness of Life?

If a Loved One at home, wishes to do confession and receive communion, please call the office to set up an appointment for one of our Priest.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

“Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, ‘God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end’

(Spe salvi 31).” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities “Respect Life Reflection: Christ Our Hope in Every Season of Life” (citing Pope Benedict XVI, Spesalvi © 2007, Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission. All rights reserved.)

HISPANIC COMMUNITY Domingo 5 de Abril del 2026. (Solemnidad de la Pascua).

Hermanas y hermanos, como se ve el problema del mal nos conduce al problema de la muerte, que con otras palabras es el problema del sentido de la vida. La Cruz de Cristo agudiza el tema del sentido de la vida. He aquí un hombre bueno, sincero, puro, generoso, sabio... retorciéndose de dolor y asfixia en un madero frente a la mirada impasible, burlona y desalmada de sus peores enemigos. ¿No es eso el resumen de nuestra angustia? ¿No es Cristo en la Cruz el grito agónico que nos nace del alma cuando queremos ser bondadosos y coherentes, y a la vez nos preguntamos si ello podría valer la pena?

El destino del Crucificado nos interesa sobremanera porque nos interesa qué le pasa al que quiere ser consecuentemente bueno. Vemos, en efecto, que los esfuerzos y las buenas intenciones no terminan de sanear este mundo y nos ponemos a predicar que hay que seguirlo intentando, aunque no haya resultados y aunque nuestra herencia sea el silencio polvoriento del sepulcro. ¡Triste y engañosa, inhumana y falsa sería una religión que tal pretendiera! Si el Crucificado se ha quedado en la tumba, allá deben quedar nuestros mejores sueños y nuestras fatuas esperanzas, porque si él no ha cambiado nada en el destino final de los hombres, nada queda tampoco sino "comamos y bebamos que mañana moriremos". Sobre el cadáver de Cristo, si tal fuera el caso, nada hay para celebrar sino la carcajada descompuesta de la muerte.

El Cuerpo verdadero del Resucitado enseña con su esplendor que la muerte no es la palabra definitiva y que todos los que pretenden dominarnos produciendo tortura, exclusión, terror o muerte no serán para siempre los señores de la tierra. Una vez que entendemos que ningún daño definitivo se puede causar a los que apuestan radicalmente por el bien, incluso más allá de su propia vida, entendemos también la enseñanza del Apóstol, en la segunda lectura de hoy: hemos resucitado con Cristo, tenemos ya una razón profunda y una fuerza invencible que nos permiten "buscar los bienes de allá arriba". Si la vida sin esperanza es un largo prefacio de infierno, la vida con la esperanza puesta en el Resucitado es una degustación de Cielo.

Feliz y bendecida Pascua de Resurrección.
