April 12th, 2026

2nd Sunday of Easter

PASTOR’S REFLECTION

The news of Jesus’ resurrection had not removed the fear from the hearts of the disciples. On the evening of Easter Sunday, they were assembled in a room with the doors closed. They needed a safe house for fear of undergoing the same fate as their master. They had not digested the events of the past few days. It was evening and it was dark. Jesus had not yet become the light of the world to them. He was still hidden under the mantle of fear.

Nobody can lock out Jesus. He enters our heart and mind constantly. We can be hard, put everything under double lock and place extra bolts, but Jesus enters. He speaks through our conscience, through people and events. We can refuse him, argue with him, resist him, fool ourselves, but he keeps entering our lives. He is the Risen Lord! He will always be in the midst of our life. If we accept Him, He will also be the bringer of peace. To accept Jesus in our midst is to have peace with other people, to try to lock him out of our life is to endanger peace.

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

HISPANIC COMMUNITY Domingo 12 de Abril del 2026. (II semana de Pascua)

Hermanas y hermanos, la Misericordia Divina llega a los hombres a través del corazón de Cristo crucificado: "Hija mía, di que soy el Amor y la Misericordia en persona", pedirá Jesús a sor Faustina. Cristo derrama esta misericordia sobre la humanidad mediante el envío del Espíritu que, en la Trinidad, es la Persona-Amor. Y ¿acaso no es la misericordia un "segundo nombre" del amor (cf. Dives in misericordia, 7), entendido en su aspecto más profundo y tierno, en su actitud de aliviar cualquier necesidad, sobre todo en su inmensa capacidad de perdón?

Hoy es verdaderamente grande mi alegría al proponer a toda la Iglesia, como don de Dios a nuestro tiempo, la vida y el testimonio de sor Faustina Kowalska. La divina Providencia unió completamente la vida de esta humilde hija de Polonia a la historia del siglo XX, el siglo que acaba de terminar. En efecto, entre la primera y la segunda guerra mundial, Cristo le confió su mensaje de misericordia. Quienes recuerdan, quienes fueron testigos y participaron en los hechos de aquellos años y en los horribles sufrimientos que produjeron a millones de hombres, saben bien cuán necesario era el mensaje de la misericordia.

Jesús dijo a sor Faustina: "La humanidad no encontrará paz hasta que no se dirija con confianza a la misericordia divina" (Diario, p. 132). A través de la obra de la religiosa polaca, este mensaje se ha vinculado para siempre al siglo XX, último del segundo milenio y puente hacia el tercero. No es un mensaje nuevo, pero se puede considerar un don de iluminación especial, que nos ayuda a revivir más intensamente el evangelio de la Pascua, para ofrecerlo como un rayo de luz a los hombres y mujeres de nuestro tiempo.

Y tú, Faustina, don de Dios a Nuestro tiempo, que tu mensaje de luz y esperanza se difunda por todo el mundo, mueva a los pecadores a la conversión, elimine las rivalidades y los odios, y abra a los hombres y las naciones a la práctica de la fraternidad. Hoy, nosotros, fijando, juntamente contigo, nuestra mirada en el rostro de Cristo resucitado, hacemos nuestra tu oración de abandono confiado y decimos con firme esperanza: "Cristo, Jesús, en ti confío".

Feliz y bendecida Segunda semana de Pascua.

Mother's Day Intentions

The role of a mother is one of great privilege; to be chosen to share in a creative miracle and to bring new Saints to heaven. Mothers give of themselves endlessly in the nurturing and education of their children, that they may be a joy in this world and a glory in the next.

On Mother's Day, May 10th, at all Masses, Mass Intention request for "All mothers, living and deceased" will be prayed for. Envelopes honoring the names of our mothers will be lovingly placed in a basket near the Altars at the Church, beginning this weekend.

To have your mother remembered, living or deceased, please submit their names in the Mother's Day envelope found at the entrances to the church. The deadline to submit is May 7th by 3pm.

Life Teen Youth Ministry would like to thank all of you for your support of their Bake Sale. Your Baked Goods, donations and purchasing of the ono-licious items - defrays the cost for Leadership Training and travel.
