PASTOR'S REFLECTION

The gospel tells us that the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. His enemies came and sowed darnels. It is impossible to distinguish wheat in the early stages of growth. Only later in its growth that the darnel can be distinguished from wheat. The reading speaks of God's leniency. He gives sinners time for repentance because though he is just, he is also merciful. Through this patience God teaches humans how they must behave towards their fellow humans. The virtuous must be understanding towards others and slow to condemn.

This is the reality of human life too. Good and evil are seatmates in our Church, in our home and in our hearts. How do we handle sinners? Do we let evil people co-exist with the rest of the community or do we imprison or execute them? Are we ready with condemnation and punishment at once whenever we meet a sinner or does the division of our own heart keep us humble? The parable advocates patience with the sinner since our eagerness to exterminate him may too easily expose ourselves to the same danger for who is not raising weeds in his own yard?

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together."

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

Domingo 19 de Julio del 2026.
 (Semana XVI del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, los textos de este domingo nos ayudan a compaginar dos atributos de Dios: es poderoso y es compasivo. Y es admirable que los dos se proclamen al tiempo de un solo y mismo Dios, porque nuestra experiencia suele ser que los que tienen mucho poder tienen poca misericordia, mientras que los muy comprensivos resultan inhábiles para alcanzar el mando.

Parece ser que la clave de la unión entre estas dos cualidades divinas es que ambas son infinitas. El que tiene un poder limitado tiene siempre el temor de perderlo o de que algo escape de su mano. El temor cierra el alma, y de ahí viene la dureza típica de lo que llamamos los "mandos medios. Lo mismo vale si la persona tiene una compasión limitada. ¿Qué es una compasión limitada? Es la capacidad de perdonar "algunas cosas" pero no todas. Es evidente que una persona así tendrá también un poder escaso, pues basta con ofenderlo más allá de su límite para ponerlo fuera de casillas, es decir, para ponerlo fuera de sí, o sea, fuera del control de sí mismo. En tal evento la persona ofendida ya no tiene poder ni siquiera sobre sus propios pensamientos o acciones.

Dios, en cambio, es ilimitado, es infinito, tanto en su poder como en su compasión. Ambas coexisten precisamente porque son infinitas. Lo dice hermosamente la primera lectura del libro de la Sabiduría: "Tu poder es el fundamento de tu justicia, y por ser el Señor de todos, eres misericordioso con todos... Con todo esto has enseñado a tu pueblo que el justo debe ser humano, y has llenado a tus hijos de una dulce esperanza, ya que al pecador le das tiempo para que se arrepienta."

En el evangelio de hoy, la misma idea resuena en otra tesitura. Todos necesitamos compasión. Ahora bien la compasión quiere hacer de nosotros personas distintas y nuevas, seres distintos de lo que somos. Y como por otra parte estamos dotados de libertad, alcanzar ese nuevo ser requiere de tiempo, lo mismo que una planta enferma que necesita nutrirse para dar sus frutos. Por eso la compasión toma el rostro de "tiempo."

Si nosotros necesitamos de tiempo, y si además podemos contar con ese tiempo, es porque la misericordia de Dios se vuelve paciencia. El Dios compasivo es siempre el Dios paciente, el Dios que da tiempo. Pero nuestro tiempo en esta tierra es limitado y por eso hay también un límite al tiempo de espera por nuestra conversión.

Que Tengan una bendecida semana.
