30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

A Pharisee, tries to trick Jesus with the question that people had long debated, "Which commandment of the law is the greatest?" He was asking what is the most important standard to live by? Jesus' answer is simple and direct, "You shall love the Lord with everything in you, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself." No matter how often we hear these words, we are challenged by the demands they place upon us. Jesus brings together the love of God and love of our neighbor as something inseparable, like two sides of a coin. Loving God whom we cannot see, is false if it is not complemented by loving our fellow men with whom we rub elbows every day. Scripture reminds us that "those who say, I love God but hate their brothers and sisters are liars." We cannot call ourselves Christians and continue crucifying our neighbor.

Loving one's neighbor can be challenging especially when the people next door is bad mannered or getting on our nerves. To show love to such people is difficult and demands great effort. Make no mistake, our religion can become an escape and our holiness an illusion, even if we pray daily, go to Church on Sundays, yet cut ourselves off from the people. The Gospel of Jesus is not an ideal to be admired but a way of life to be lived.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"The witness of our Blessed Mother [in the Gospel account of her visit to her pregnant cousin, Elizabeth,] invites us to become more aware of the needs of pregnant and parenting moms in our own parishes and communities. ...Mary's witness is an invitation to step out in love and compassion. It is a summons to make haste to help vulnerable women who may be isolated and alone."

HISPANIC MINISTRY

Domingo 25 de Octubre del 2026.
(semana XXX del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, ya sabemos que la Biblia predica la compasión y la misericordia. Lo interesante de la primera lectura de hoy es la manera como se argumenta el mandato de ser compasivos. La idea es: reconóctete en el pequeño, mírate en el pobre, descubre que tú fuiste (o, en el fondo, eres) como ese necesitado.

Uno tiende a pensar que la ayuda debe brotar de la diferencia: "yo tengo mucho y aquel pobre tiene poco." Esa es una parte pero quizá no es la parte más importante. Si veo a un mendigo puede sentir desde amor hasta asco. Si de pronto llego a saber que ese mendigo es mi padre, que padece una enfermedad senil, la misericordia brota como un río de amor y generosidad hacia él: cuanto más cerca lo descubro, más me espanta que la pobreza o el hambre nos estén separando hoy. Aplica tú lo mismo a la Humanidad.

Una pregunta directa provocó una respuesta directa: Uno de los escribas se acercó a Jesús y le preguntó: "¿Cuál es el primero de todos los mandamientos?" Jesús le respondió: "El primero es: Escucha, Israel: El Señor, nuestro Dios, es el único Señor; amarás al Señor tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con toda tu mente y con todas tus fuerzas. El segundo es éste: Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. No hay ningún mandamiento mayor que éstos".

Es bueno recordar ese lenguaje escueto porque en un mundo plagado de fachadas y máscaras es fácil acostumbrarse a disculparlo todo o justificarlo todo o venderlo todo. El orden empieza siempre con un pensamiento claro en la mente; una idea llena de luz atrae a otras. Y hoy Jesús nos da esa clave fundamental, ese primer principio que iluminó su alma santa y que quiere iluminar también nuestras vidas.

La palabra fundamental en la respuesta de Jesucristo no la podemos perder: AMA. El resto de su respuesta es esencial también, porque todo depende de a quién ames y con qué amor. Tal fue el regalo que nos dio con su vida y su muerte. Bien podemos resumir la existencia de Cristo diciendo que fue una gran cátedra de amor en la que aprendimos que hemos de amar para vivir y hemos de aprender a amar para vencer a la muerte y alcanzar la vida que no muere.

Les deseo una Feliz y bendecida semana para todas y todos.
