ALL SAINTS DAY

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Today is the joyful day for heaven's "gala performance," the Solemnity of all Saints. While most canonized saints have a designated date in the calendar for their memorials or feasts, November 1st is the day for all of them, including the "lower case" or the "unknown" saints. They are those who, perhaps, had never gone through the tedious processes of beatification and canonization but nevertheless enjoying the beatitude of heaven, the vision of God, in His company.

We are all called saints. A saint simply speaking, is a friend of God, and all those who are in heaven are called saints. In that blessed community, there are saints with a small "s." they refer to anyone "worthy" enough for the gift of heaven. And then there are saint with a capital, "S," the likes of St. Theresa, St Augustine, St John Vianney etc. they are canonized saints.

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

HISPANIC MINISTRY

Domingo 1 de Noviembre del 2026. (Fiesta de todos los Santos).

Hermanas y hermanos, después de todo, el bien también existe; está entre nosotros, aunque, por ahora, permanece de modo casi invisible. En esa muchedumbre encontramos gentes de toda raza, lengua, pueblo y nación. Otra imagen que nos sorprende. Tal vez estamos acostumbrados a pensar la salvación en términos de élites y de exclusiones: los del hemisferio Norte tienen un nivel de vida, y los del Sur, otro; los ricos gozan lo que no pueden disfrutar los pobres; los educados y los incultos, los sanos y los enfermos. Siempre parece que la salvación y la felicidad son para un grupo cerrado que deja excluido al resto. La alegría del Apocalipsis es distinta; en ella la exclusión ha sido excluida.

La muchedumbre de la tierra se une a la muchedumbre del Cielo, la muchedumbre de los santos que han "buscado al Señor", otra enseñanza nos queda clara: los caminos de la búsqueda son múltiples. La caridad, la penitencia, la predicación, el martirio, la oración escondida, la denuncia profética... ¡cuántos caminos diversos tienen sin embargo un mismo destino: la bienaventuranza!

Esto quiere decir que cada uno debemos encontrar al único que es Camino, es decir, Jesucristo.

El Evangelio nos ofrece la brújula, la carta de navegación hacia la santidad. Santidad no es lo que nosotros imaginemos sino lo que Dios nos enseña. Jesús es el Santo de Dios y en su vida y su palabra está la santidad que Dios ha pensado para nuestras vidas. Las bienaventuranzas de Cristo son realidades que se viven en esta tierra y que preparan la bienaventuranza más allá de esta tierra. No podemos separar la existencia terrena de la vida más allá de este mundo. Quien rechaza las bienaventuranzas ¿podrá aspirar a la bienaventuranza? Quien no acoge a Cristo como Maestro de felicidad en este mundo, ¿podrá gozar de la felicidad que él anuncia más allá de este mundo?

El Cristo que comulgamos hoy es el mismo Cristo que nos recibirá en la gloria; el mismo que se dará como alimento dulcísimo en el cielo, para regocijo de ángeles y hombres. Aprender a comulgar es un ejercicio de cielo. Una Eucaristía bien vivida es una escuela de alegría, de alabanza y sobre todo de gratitud.

Feliz y bendecido día de todos los Santos y Santas de Dios.

"National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country, November 1-7, 2026. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation."

Prayer for Priests and Religious: "Heavenly Father, grant that many young people may hear Your call and respond with generous hearts. Help them to understand that to serve You is to reign, and to follow You is to find true happiness. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen
