Christ the King Church

MISSION STATEMENT

"Christ the King Parish is to "Go and Make Disciples" by welcoming all into our community: growing as Holy Disciples in formation through prayer, fellowship, and witnessing to God's people.

November 15th, 2026
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

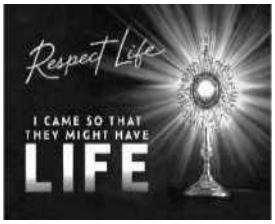

Jesus instructs his disciples of all time about how to behave in the period between his resurrection and ascension and his second coming through the parable of the talents. A talent was a large sum of money equal to the wages of a day-laborer for fifteen years. Talents can also be understood as abilities and gifts God has bestowed upon each one. The large amount of money entrusted to each servant shows God's generosity and the greatness of his faith to his children. In the parable the master did not give any instruction to his servants as to what was to be done with talents. The first two servants took initiative and risked new ventures and eventually multiplied their generosity by 100 precent. The third servant, on the other hand, played it safe. He took no risk; he took no initiative; he displayed no enthusiasm. Eventually he earned nothing for his master. Everything God had given to the disciples---their lives, their abilities, their possession and their very selves---is given in order to be spent and multiplied in the service of God and his kingdom, thereby becoming the source of further blessing for others and themselves

Father Efren A. Tomas, MS

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: How will I share my God given gifts this week to enhance the body of Christ?

"We can't imagine loving a child whom we conceived more than we love Andrew. It is amazing how he fits or personalities so well… Adopting Andrew has made us more aware of God's power and of his love for us. We realize that he always has a perfect plan for our lives.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks. Thank You for all the graces and blessings You have bestowed upon us — spiritual and temporal: our faith and religious heritage, our food and shelter, our health, the loves we have for one another, our family and friends. Dear Father, in Your infinite generosity, please grant us continued graces and blessings throughout the coming year. This we ask in the Name of Jesus, Your Son and our Brother. Amen.

With Grateful Hearts,
Father Efren, Father Anil, Deacon Kenneth, Jr. & Dn Cornelio, Sister Julia, Madelyne & Mildred

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING CHURCH

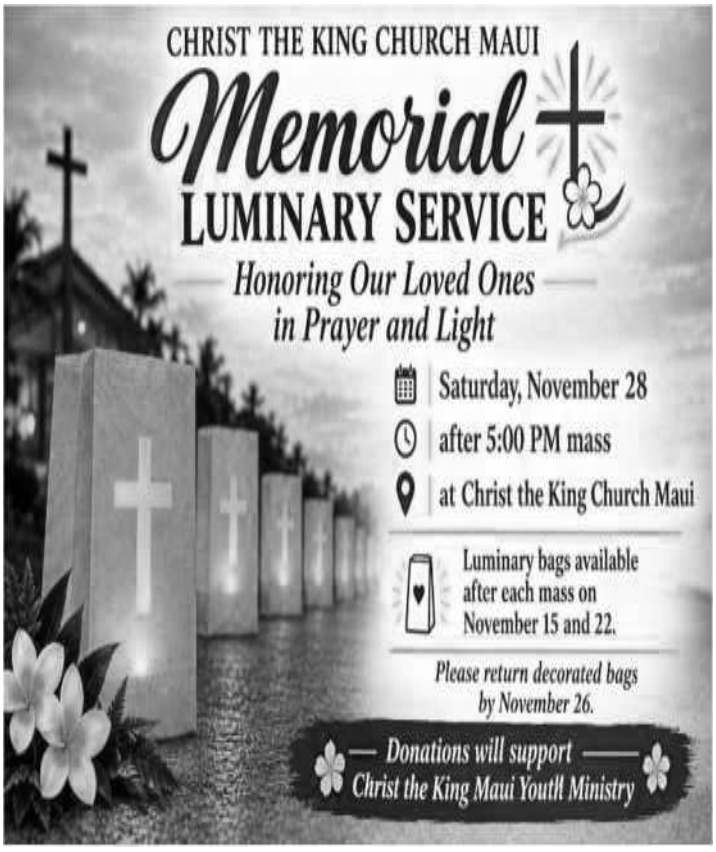

10 AM MASS November 22, 2026

FOLLOWED BY LUNCHEON IN THE PARISH HALL
Reception is to Welcome Sister Julia, Volunteer Appreciation and Feast Day of Christ The King .

All are Invited!

The feast emphasizes that Christ's authority extends over both spiritual and temporal realms, reminding the faithful that all aspects of life—mind, will, and heart—should be aligned with His reign. It also highlights the eschatological dimension of Christ's kingship, pointing to the ultimate fulfillment of His reign at the end of time, as expressed in the Paschal Mystery and the resurrection The feast encourages reflection on personal submission to Christ's authority and the moral responsibilities of Christian in society.

Domingo 15 de Noviembre del 2026.
(Semana XXXIII del tiempo ordinario).

Hermanas y hermanos, a donde miran nuestros ojos, si atendemos bien, notaremos que la diferencia entre los tres hombres de la parábola no estaba tanto en lo que recibieron sino en los ojos con que acogieron lo que recibieron. Tanto el que recibió cinco como el que recibió dos talentos miraron lo que habían recibido; el que recibió un talento miró no lo que tenía sino lo que no tenía. Además no miró a lo que él podía hacer sino a lo que le podían hacer. Su problema no está en la cantidad, sino en la calidad, y no en la calidad de lo que recibe sino en la calidad del corazón y los ojos que reciben.

Es interesante la observación sobre los intereses. Ya en tiempos de Jesús existía la práctica de prestar dinero reclamando un "tókos", literalmente: una "usura". Este siervo hizo completamente improductivo el dinero. Hay en esto quizá una alegoría. Dejar el dinero "en el banco", literalmente: "a los prestamistas", es entregar el propio talento a otros para que ellos, los prestamistas, hagan lo que uno no puede hacer. El mensaje sería: "lo mínimo que puedes hacer con tu talento es ofrecerlo a otros para que no quede infecundo; si no puedes ser administrador de lo tuyo, por lo menos encuentra quién lo administre para que no se pierda".

La primera lectura nos ayuda a situar todo este tema en una perspectiva amplia. La imagen de los talentos, que en su sentido primero son dinero en nuestras manos, nos puede hacer pensar sólo en lo que tenemos y no tanto en lo que somos, o en lo que recibimos. En la primera lectura se resaltan otros talentos que se acercan más a lo que hoy llamamos valores: una mujer hacendosa, que inspira confianza, diligente, generosa. Y sobre todo aquel mensaje que nos invita a mirar hacia adentro, hacia ese espacio donde nacen los valores: " Son engañosos los encantos y vana la hermosura; merece alabanza la mujer que teme al Señor" (Prov 31,30).

Nuestros grandes valores y grandes talentos están muy adentro, aunque su fruto es bien visible y claro. Jesús dijo en una ocasión a los suyos: "dichosos vuestros ojos porque ven y vuestros oídos porque oyen" (Mt 13,16). Se refería a las señales de la gracia y a la predicación de la Buena Nueva. Esas señales y esa noticia estan hoy aquí con nosotros, especialmente por la riqueza incomparable de la Eucaristía. Son también talentos que Dios nos concede y que quiere que den su fruto, un fruto "que permanezca" (Jn 15,16).

Que Tengan una Feliz y bendecida semana.
